Dear CertainTeed Residential Roofing Customers:

U.S. Residential Roofing Products Price Increase:

Effective April 11, 2022

Due to the continued volatility in the market for raw materials used in the manufacturing of asphalt shingles, CertainTeed will increase prices for residential roofing shingles and accessory products by up to 10%, effective as of April 11, 2022.

While there is continued speculation in the marketplace, our data shows that we can expect to see the current trends in raw materials to continue for the foreseeable future. All of our raw materials are being affected but some most impacted are oil derived materials such as asphalt, as well as energy and packaging.

All Orders shipped on or after April 11, 2022 will be invoiced at the new price, regardless of the order entry date. This increase will include all shipments. We will provide you with specific amounts by product as we get closer to this date.

Transportation Surcharge Fee Increase on all Residential and Commercial Product Deliveries

Transportation expenses associated with delivering roofing products continues to increase. We will increase our Transportation Surcharge to $250 per truckload. This change in surcharge replaces all previously announced surcharges.

Your CertainTeed Regional Manager and Territory Manager will assist in answering specific questions regarding these increases.

We appreciate your continued support of CertainTeed Residential Roofing Products.

Sincerely,

Doug Pietrick

Price Increase Announcement

To Our Valued NPC Colored Sealant Customer,

We thank you for your business and trust all is well.

Inflation has been substantially worse for producers (PPI goods 16%) than consumers (CPI 8.6%) for quite a while. Inputs such as labor, energy, freight and raw materials/supply chain issues continue to rise with no sign of improvement. In order to continue to serve you, NPC is raising prices for all products shipped on and after Monday May 23, 2022. The increase will be between 6-9% (dependent on product and quantity ordered). This increase will be effective for all orders at the time of shipping regardless of when the order is received.

All our suppliers and vendors are having difficulty to just stay abreast of inflation. The common practice of 30 day notice on pricing adjustments from our vendors has disappeared and we are being hit with next day or next order increases continually. We are not confident we will be able to provide 3 weeks notice if future increases are needed. NPC, like you, has continued to be challenged by substantial and repeated price increase notices from almost all our vendors (Aluminum foil cartridges, oil based elastomers and resins, energy intensive powders, boxes and especially pigments) as well as transportation costs, insurance, taxes and significant pressure on employees' wages to keep up with real inflation.

We are grateful we've been able to ship our customers within normal lead times and haven't reduced our color offerings like so many other sealant manufacturers. As a matter of fact, we have done our best to listen to our customers' needs and increased our color offerings because of the strong demand for colored sealants in the industry. Last year we invested in new machinery and added personnel to better serve you on the color side of our sealant business.

We now offer over 275 standard colors, plus premium and custom colors that match the vast majority of building product manufacturer's colors. Example: LP SmartSide, James Hardie, CertainTeed, Ply-Gem, Variform Firestone (Una-Clad) Petersen, (Pac-Clad) etc.

As promised we remain focused on reliably supplying our existing loyal customers' vs accepting growth opportunities with new customers (who are experiencing sealant shortages or long lead times). Many of you have thanked us for that. We sincerely appreciate your support of NPC over the years and look forward to continuing to support you regardless of the business environment.

Bottom line: NPC is doing our best to hold the prices down through productivity improvements, but raw material supplies are low and not improving, so costs keep rising. Nearly all costs are rapidly increasing at rates much faster than the official CPI and PPI numbers. The need to increase product prices is very real for NPC to ensure we stay a reliable supplier. As we have been saying for a while now, the sealant market continues to be in turmoil as shortages and supply chain issues persist.

Our new Wholesale Price List dated May 23, 2022 is attached. We ask that you place any orders by May 9th if you hope to be invoiced for that order before the increase goes into effect.

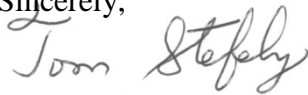

The demand for our sealants is so strong right now that we are not allowing companies to “stock up” and double order just to beat an increase. If you do choose to place an order before May 9th please keep it within your normal volume range.

NPC plans to continue to reliably supply you and your customers with the sealants you know and trust. As the cost of manufacturing and raw materials continues to be a challenge, we will do our best to communicate in advance what impact they will have on pricing and product availability.

Our staff and your local NPC service representative are both available to answer any specific questions you may have.

We all thank you for choosing NPC Colored Sealants as your supplier. Every order you place with us is appreciated!

Sincerely,
